

Changes between DSAT v9.24 and v9.30

The following Technical Fix has been applied:

In certain circumstances when attempting to use DSATs, a UPIN of "0" (zero) was displayed and the name Barnfield College shown. This is caused by some of the L01 - UPIN values in the Learner table being set to "0". This data error has been overcome and leaves the field unaltered.

The following Technical Fix has been applied:

In certain circumstances when attempting to use DSATs over a network the "on-click" error message is displayed. It has been found that a system command used within DSATs causes this error. A fix has been applied that should allow DSATs to be run over a network and to address this problem.

The following Technical Fix has been applied:

In certain circumstances when reports were being generated MS-Excel was being left running in the background. Additional coding has been used to ensure this no longer causes an error.
