

Frequently Asked Questions

Q Is there a word count limit for applications?

A We have not specified one but it is recommended that applications keep within a limit of one page per section and do not use a font size of less than 10.

Q Where can I find the list or areas of deprivation and maps mentioned in the Guidance?

A These have now been re-instated on the LSC South East web site. However, the specifications themselves give a list of the priority areas that have been identified for activities.

Q Is it possible to make a county wide bid?

A If an organisation wishes to bid for all areas they should submit separate application forms so that the activities and outputs can be compared with other bids for the area

Q Could you clarify the title of the local Folkestone initiative mentioned in the South Kent specification?

A The title is "Get Folkestone Working".
