

South Cotswold Business Breakfast Meeting

Survive or Thrive?

Want your business to survive and thrive but don't know how you're going to finance it?

In this interactive session, Mike Stutter, Finance Adviser for Business Link, will advise you what is available to local companies, who the best contacts are and other ways of raising finance.

This seminar will address the building blocks of business finance, help you unravel the jargon and understand some basic concepts.

More about the speaker:

Mike Stutter has over thirty years of business finance experience & was a senior manager with one of the main commercial lenders before he joined Business Link in 2005.

Mike can give you the insider view on how a bank will assess a proposal & help you to best present your case in these challenging economic times.

He can also assess whether there are other possible routes to funding apart from Bank finance.
